MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Intelligence Community Staff
Deputy Director for Intelligence
Deputy Director for Operations
Deputy Director for Science and Technology
Chairman, E Career Service

FROM: Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT: Records System Reporting

1. The Privacy Act of 1976 requires that each federal agency which maintains a system of records as defined by the Privacy Act <sup>1/</sup> must publish, at least annually, a notice in the Federal Register of the existence and character of such system of records. CIA initially listed 67 such systems. The decade since the first listing, several amendments have increased the total system listed to 69. A copy of the current system listing is attached.

2. Freedom of Information Act, Privacy Act and Executive Order 12356 Handbook ([redacted] further defines the responsibilities of pertinent Agency components and describes procedures to use in satisfying those responsibilities. Additionally, all components have been periodically reminded of the need to keep the Agency listing of Privacy Act systems of records current. The most recent reminder was [redacted] dated 18 July 1984, titled Records Systems Reporting.

3. Like much of the rest of our society, the Agency has not escaped the effects of the dramatic advances in information processing in the last decade. On its face, it would seem unlikely that there have been no revisions in the Agency's systems of records that would require a revision of the Agency's published listing.

<sup>1/</sup> "The term "system of records" means a group of any records under the control of any agency from which information is retrieved by the name of the individual or by some identifying number, symbol, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual," 552a(a)(5).

4. I ask that each addressee review their records systems to ensure that all proper systems of records are identified. To ensure that no one mistakes the seriousness of this requirement, I would remind you of the following provision of the Privacy Act;

"Any officer or employee of any agency who willfully maintains a system of records without meeting the notice requirements of subsection (e)(4) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than $5,000."

5. The record system reviews must be done expeditiously. Each Directorate is expected to report its findings resulting from the review to the Deputy Director for Administration no later than 31 October 1985. The report should indicate which record system listings remain the same, which systems should be deleted from the listing, which systems listings should be modified and which new systems should be added. The DDA Office of Information Services is prepared to assist your components in dealing with questions which may arise in the process of your review.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

STATEMENT OF GENERAL ROUTINE USES

The following routine uses apply to, and are incorporated by reference into, each system of records maintained by the CIA:

1. In the event that a system of records maintained by the Central Intelligence Agency to carry out its functions indicates, or relates to, a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation, or charged with the responsibility to take appropriate administrative action, or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, or rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

2. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a Central Intelligence Agency decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance or special access, or the performance of the Agency's acquisition functions.

3. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a federal, state, or local agency, or other appropriate entities, or individuals, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance or special access, the reporting or an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the entity's decision on the matter.

4. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, in the course of presenting evidence to a court, magistrate or administrative tribunal, including disclosures to opposing parties or their counsel or other representatives in the course of settlement negotiations, and disclosures made pursuant to statutes or regulations governing the conduct of such proceedings.

5. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation, as set forth in OMB Circular No. A-19, at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in the Circular.

6. A record from a system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to NARS (GSA) in records management inspections conducted under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

7. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a federal, state, or local agency, other appropriate entities or individuals, or, through established liaison channels, to selected foreign governments, provided such disclosure is compatible with the purpose for which the purpose for which the record was collected and is undertaken to enable the Central Intelligence Agency to carry out its responsibilities under the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, the CIA Act of 1949, as amended, Executive Order 12333 or any successor order, national security directives applicable to the Agency and classified implementing procedures approved by the Attorney General promulgated pursuant to such Orders and directives, as well as statutes, Executive orders and directives of general applicability. This routine use is not intended to supplant the other routine uses published by the Central Intelligence Agency.

CIA-1

System name: Applications Tracking System.

System location:

Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Agency and contract employees, employees of contractor supporting Office of Data Processing, currently or formerly assigned to computer software development or maintenance projects in Applications.

Categories of records in the system: Documentation of hours logged on each assigned programming or overhead project.

Authority for maintenance of the system: Section 506(a), Federal Records Act of 1950 (44 U.S.C., Section 3101).

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: Used by Applications staff for periodic reporting to management man-hours expended to develop assigned programming projects and overhead hours. Used for tracking the usage and scheduling of all resources for developing software.

Used to substantiate hours spent by contractor personnel on billable contractual activity.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Magnetic disk.

Retrievability: Name and employee number.

Safeguards: Limited to specifically designated and cleared personnel.

Retention and disposal: Records are erased when hours of activity are no longer needed by management.

System manager(s) and address:

Director, Office of Data Processing
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Notification procedure: Individuals seeking to learn if this system of records contains information about them should direct their inquiries to:

Information and Privacy Coordinator
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Identification requirements are specified in the CIA rules published in the Federal Register (32 CFR 1901.13). Individuals must comply with these rules.

Record access procedures: Request from individuals should be addressed as indicated in the Notification section above.

Contesting record procedures: The Central Intelligence Agency's regulations for access to individual records, for disputing the contents thereof, and for appealing an initial determination by CIA concerning access to or correction of records, are promulgated in the CIA rules section of the Federal Register.

Record source categories: Agency employees, contract employees, employees of contractor supporting the Office of Data Processing.

CIA-2

System name: Office of Data Processing Training and Skills Inventory.

System location:

Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Employees, contract employees, and employees of contractors assigned to the Office of Data Processing (ODP).

Categories of records in the system: Documentation of CIA-funded training for each individual assigned to the Office of Data Processing.

Documentation submitted by each individual assigned to ODP, indicating his self-evaluation of his programming skills.

Authority for maintenance of the system: Section 506(a), Federal Records Act of 1950 (44 U.S.C. 3101).

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: Assist D/ODP in ascertaining what additional training personnel should receive.

Assist D/ODP in the management of personnel assignments to new programming tasks.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Magnetic disk.

Retrievability: By Name.

Safeguards: Access to and use of these records is limited to those persons whose official duties require such access.

Retention and disposal: Records are purged as employees separate from ODP via periodic updates.

System manager(s) and address:

Director, Office of Data Processing
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Notification procedure: Individuals seeking to learn if this system of records contains information about them should direct their inquiries to:

Information and Privacy Coordinator
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Identification requirements are specified in the CIA rules published in the Federal Register (32 CFR 1901.13). Individuals must comply with these rules.

Record access procedures: Request from individuals should be addressed as indicated in the notification section above.

Contesting record procedures: The Central Intelligence Agency's regulations for access to individual records, for disputing the contents thereof, and for appealing an initial determination by CIA concerning access to or correction of records, are promulgated in the CIA rules section of the Federal Register.

Record source categories: Agency personnel and employees of contractors.

CIA-3

System name: Computer Access File.

System location:

Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Agency employees having special access to Office of Data Processing computer systems. Agency cleared contractors who have been granted access to Office of Data Processing computer systems.

Categories of records in the system: Individual's name, office, user identification code, badge number and computer systems to which the individual has access.

Authority for maintenance of the system: Section 506(a), Federal Records Act of 1950 (44 U.S.C. 3101).

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: Office of Data Processing Security Officers, computer system and data base managers, and Automated Data Processing Control Officers use the system to:

Determine computer system(s), if any, to which an individual at CIA has access.

Control access to computer systems through automated computer system verifications of individual's authorization for access to computer which he/she is attempting to use.

Determine the name, office, room number and badge number associated with the user identification code of an individual suspected of a possible violation of computer systems security procedures.

Identify individuals listed in audit trail records as having accessed a particular computer system or computer-based system of records. Produce mailing lists of ODP computer users.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Magnetic disk packs with "back-up" records on tapes and controlled hard copy computer listings used for reference. Applications and approval for access are maintained in paper files.

Retrievability: Name and user identification code.

Safeguards: Access to these records is limited to cleared persons whose official duties require such access. Personnel screening and computer system security protective mechanisms are employed to prevent unauthorized disclosure. Hard copy computer listings and paper files are maintained in combination lock safes or vaulted areas.

Retention and disposal: Records of individuals who no longer have access to Office of Data Processing systems are deleted from computer-based system of records.

As changes are made and new master computer listings are generated, the paper listings are destroyed by burning and the records on magnetic media are degaussed. There is no retention of these records.

System manager(s) and address:

Director, Office of Data Processing
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505.
